

A professional kitchen by and for the people...

The kitchen is the heart of the home, and shared meals bring community together. Our vision is to provide a professional kitchen for our member collectives, as well as aligned organizations and individuals who can't afford the high rents charged by most commercial kitchens in the area.

